4th June 1981

With reference to your letter of 24th May addressed to Mr. Keates, I have to tell you that Mr. Keates has now left our employment but I have looked at the record books, such as they are, concerning the two rifles in which you are interested.

No. 8862 was made in 1884 and the purchaser is just listed as the Nawab but it does not say which Nawab or of where. It was shot and tested at the range with 10 drams of powder.

No. 15129 was made for the Nizam in 1893.

I enclose the address of someone who makes brass cases.

Yours sincerely,

D. Winks

12th May, 1966.

We duly received your recent letter, together with your cheque for £9.11.0. (£26.75) in settlement of our account.

With regard to the Paradox gun you mentioned in your letter, No.15129, on referring to our records we find this was manufactured in 1893 but unfortunately no cartridges are obtainable for Paradox weapons to-day. The person that it was made for is Mr. Nizain.

We trust that this will be of interest to you.

We are, Sir,
Your obedient servants,
for HOLLAND & HOLLAND LTD.
