

Price 1200.00

Winchester

(Manufactured By)

38-72

Early (Caliber)

Rough "light weight" 26"

(Barrel Length)

(Overall Length)

(Front Sight)

CARBINE BUTTSICK HAS 2 HOOKS RATHER THAN THE COMMON ONE DRILLED UNDER PLETE. BUTTSICK IS

2 IN. EXT. THAN (NON STEADED) TYPE. SEE BACK.

MARK

Rifle

~~Revolver Pistol~~

1895

(Model)

(Cylinder)

(Type Barrel)

(Bore Condition) (Smooth-Rifled)

(Overall Length)

(Weight)

9-30-1898

(Date of Manufacture)

Finish Blued.

John Fox

(Signature From)

2316 Woodward Ave.

Missoula, Montana 59801

Sep. 27, 1971

(Date)

$1200.00

(Price)

(Sold To)

23178

Early Transition

(Date)

(Price) 38-72

Bolt is rounded on rec as the early Flatide
Flats is apparently the beginning or "Pattern" for later different Flats.
Ridge on Front of Action is early Flatide Profile.

Lever is different than later split type (level on top).
Lever also different inside.

Hammer rounded on rec (different)
Magazine box - early Flatide type -

Barrel small rounded Action - not heavy.
Fore end fits such. is made for barrel above.

According to Winchester - "New Pattern" refers to the bar - of 2 piece shipped as per Carbine, Oct 30, New Pattern Construction.

Sept. 20, 1898. Returned for Remarks twice in 1900.

- "Drop Brush Wiper" meant the U.S. Government Cleaner with

Thong and Brass Brush wiper
in one end & Brass sloped patch and.

This gun appears for sale in the
Gen Report of Feb 1896 on Firearms-Ad
under Kelley-Melloy Item No. 1. Pictured at $550.00