

62. FRENCH "LE FRANCAIS TYPE POLICEMAN", 6.35mm, 153XXX range; longer barreled type with wide grip at base; exc. "MF" logo grips of black plastic; exc. mag. with loop for the 'extra cartridge'; factory engraved variation, having about 50% coverage of the engraving; retains about 95% original blue except for some fading on straps and does have some slight pitting at muzzle & hint of same on right side of slide, etc; overall an exc. example of the type with desirable engraving feature! $350
63. FRENCH "LE FRANCAIS", 7.65mm, 9XXX range; exceptionally scarce variation that is half way between the 6.35mm and 9mm versions we've had in the past; unique mag. release is built into the magazine; moreover, this rarity appears virtually 100% mint in original factory box (box bears different sn); highly unusual & rare! $1300
64. FRENCH MAB "D", 7.65mm, 114XXX range; "WaA69" proofed and a total fraud in that sense! yet interesting conversation piece for sure (has French No.African proofs from post WWII era on trigger guard); smooth finish, with about half blue remaining and exc. mechanically, grips, etc; complete with original WaA holster from WWII in good shape (mag. pocket scuffed & torn); certainly worth the price of $150
65. HAENEL SCHMEISSER, 6.35mm, 50XXX range; about 90% smooth finish remains except for even fading; original mag. & exc. mechanically; overall about exc. example $135
66. HI-STANDARD "A", .22 cal., 61XXX range; this 4½" barrel example is just about 100% mint, appearing to be almost new in every way; outstanding Hi-Standard!! $425
67. HI-STANDARD SUPERMATIC (M103), .22 cal., 134XXXX range; 5½" heavy barrel; 99% mint! $270
68. H&R .25ACP POCKET AUTO, 11XXX range; another 'ugh' condition example; appears fine mechanically, but has been reblued; missing gripscrews but with original H&R grips, mag., & spare mag. (unknown manuf. spare mag.); priced accordingly $85
69. HUNGARIAN 37M, 9mmK., 191XXX range; exc. original grooved wood grips & finger extn. mag; bore & overall near perfect, retaining about 97% fine blue, with the slightest rub marks; exc or better example, truly exceptional! $335
70. HUNGARIAN P37, 7.65mm, 39XXX range; "jhv41" coded & even the mag. is matching! 99% original blue makes this a virtually perfect example of the first WWII contract! $395
71. HUNGARIAN P37, 7.65mm, 63XXX range; another example in about 99% mint condition; this one "jhv43" coded & again with matching mag! exceptionally impressive pistols! $395
72. LAHTI, VKT L-35, 9mm, 8XXX range; retaining about 97% original blue and generally exc+ overall; never as common as the Husqvarna, the Valmet is from Finland; $750
73. LAHTI, VKT L-35, 9mm, 9XXX range; one of the last made as production never reached the 10,000 level in Finland; about 97% overall and even scarcer than above! $750
(FINNISH BOOKLET on their Lahti pistols w/some English text & lots of good photos/data $15 ea)
74. LUGER, DWM M1900 A.E., 7.65mmPara./ .30 Luger cal., 86XX range; gorgeous example of this classic, early Luger; checkered safety (2nd type) & gripsafety; lovely plain woodbase mag. (original too); and simply 100% correct throughout; retains nearly all the lovely original straw colors and 98-99% fine original blue, showing the slightest handling on high edges and straps; fine bore, but shows signs of early ammo use; sharp 'crisp' checkering on grips which appear nearly perfect too; very hard to improve on and be original as this one is; magnificent! $2500
75. LUGER, DWM M1900 A.E., 7.65mm, 94XX range; features as above except condition which is worn and has UNUSUAL 8" BARREL that appears to be from the pre WWI period too! ~~generally smooth, but about half faded overall; mechanically fine, and rates a 'vg' overall probably; especially interesting long barrel feature!~~ $795
76. LUGER, DWM M1902 CARBINE, 7.65mm, 21XXX range; complete with original stock and a lovely contemporary fitted case (made in last several years), this is not an ordinary example, rather a gorgeous and honest Carbine retaining almost 99%+ original blue & straw, with perfect, mirror bore etc; all wood is about perfect, showing slightest handling and age; stock butt plate is much better than most, showing only hints of deterioration; a very special example of a special Luger! $10,000
77. LUGER, DWM M1906 A.E., 7.65mm, 66XXX range; another treasure from a quality collection, this one retaining 99% original blue with lovely straw colors; perfect woodbase mag. & grips; perfect, mirror bore; exceptional example; near mint!! $1850
78. LUGER, DWM M1906 A.E., 9mm, 38XXX range; a beautiful example that even has the Scriptic "Cal. 9^m/m" marked mag. base! perfect, mirror bore & almost 99%+ gorgeous blue (professionally restored in my opinion) and nearly all correct straw colors (-do-); grips & mag. base are new perfect too; magnificent beauty! $1750

Thank you for calling in regard to the 1902
Luger Carbine.

I have had a few photos printed so you can see what the gun looks like, although it would be better if you could make a physical inspection.

It is truly a beautiful specimen and one that the owner can be proud of. The blue and straw are excellent and it has a mirror bore.

After looking at the photos, and if you have continued interest, please give me a call.

Sincerely yours,

DECEMBER 1 - 1984

Thanks for making your call in regard to my 1902 Carbine.

I have enclosed a few snaps and the larger prints show it pretty well.

I can assure you that if you want a 1902 Carbine
I know this is one you would be proud to own.

I would need an F.F.H. and could give you a few days (10) to return it if you wished. I want 10,500 -.

Thanks again,

Devey

10 are enclosed a few snaps I found. They show a lot to be desired but give a pretty good idea of the condition of the gun. It has a carrying case (fitted) which is nice to have.

I can say that I sincerely feel this example is as fine a 1902 Carbine Ruger one would not be afraid.

I would have to have an F.F.H. license to see to should you decide to have me send it to you by U.P.

If you were not completely happy with it I would return your money on the return of the gun.

If you are interested further, call me at
(408) 624-2105 - Tibbels Beach, Ca. or (503) 595-6474
Camp Sherman, Ore.

Thanks again for your inquiry.

Sincerely,
