I am so pleased that the .369 was to your satisfaction and I confirm receipt of your cheque and cash totalling £675, for which I thank you. I have, of course, passed your kind remarks on to Peter.

Daryl has, at last, finished his research into our records on your behalf. As I said to you, wherever possible he has traced entries in the ledgers used in the showroom, as well as just the entries in our record books and you have a copy of every entry that he has traced. The typed schedule contains just the barest of descriptions. - we hope that you will find all the information you require in the photocopies attached but if you do need anything else, let us know and we will do what we can. I am sorry it has taken so long but, as I am sure you realise, it is not easy to get away from Bruton Street.

I do hope your house is coming along well and all the wedding arrangements are going smoothly. I must confess that my elder daughter is getting married in July and I had never realised just how many things there are to attend to.

My kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

David Winks
