Dear Mr. Cox:

Reference is made to your letter requesting historical information on Colt
New Line Revolver, serial number 7971.

We are sorry to inform you we will not be able to locate the shipping record or any information pertaining to this arm. The records apparently were lost or destroyed years ago.

Since we are unable to provide historical information regarding your old Colt revolver, we are making arrangements with our Accounts Payable Department to return any remittance sent with your letter.

We regret we are unable to be of assistance to you at this time.

Sincerely,

Historian

Dear Mr. Huber:

Best wishes for the Christmas Season and a prosperous
New Year to you.

I would like historical information on the Colt New Line revolver, 30 caliber, serial # 7971.

This little gun appears to be factory engraved, nickel plated and with pearl grips. If you can find this number enclosed in the shipping records I would appreciate a Xerox copy of that page of the shipping records. If that is not possible and the shipment involves only a few other similar engraved guns, I would appreciate the serial numbers of those other guns in the same shipment.

Very truly yours,

Robert G. Cox

Dear Mr. Reyes,

Thank you for your letter & descriptions + the photos. All guns appear nice + the photos sure help. I need them all but will start with the 2 least expensive. - The 2 new Lias:

2 original list cost new fire 41	$ 75.00
3 " " " cost new fire 30	65.00
	140.00

If you don't mind I will keep the photos for further check. ~~the~~ Is the Home intro 41 RF or CF? I am particularly looking for cased and/or engraved New Fire + Home pistols.

What would be the least you would take for the other three if I took them all?

Enclosed is check for 141.00 to cover postage + ins.

Yours truly
Robert G. Cox

Dear Mr Wagner

Inclosed - a $6.00 money order for historical data on Colt New Line 30 caliber Ser # 4911. It has

11- short 1 3/4" BBL, nickel finish & pearl grips. I have seen Colt advertisements that the 1886 was starting that the Colt New 30 was also offered in a "pocket model with a short 1 3/4" BBL." Were these short bbl centers (1 3/4") all made about that time or was they mfg continued all through the Colt new line production era of 1873-1890?

Yours truly,
R. H. Kay

Dear Mr. Wagner,

Enclosed is a $6 money order for historical information on Colt Newline 30 caliber rimfire revolver Serial #4911, which has Pearl grips, nickel finish and the scarce 1 3/4 inch short barrel length.

Can you estimate the frequency of these short barrel lengths in the 30 caliber rimfire in searching through the records.

Very truly yours,

Robert G. Cox M.D.
