Dear Mr. Cox:

We have made an extensive search for your Colt New Line Revolver, Serial Number 13911, but were not able to locate this specific serial number. As you know, the records on the early models are not in chronological order and are tough to pick up.

Our record of research in the past on your guns has not been the greatest, but we will keep trying.

We are making arrangements with our Accounts Payable Department to refund your $15.00.

If we can be of any further assistance to you, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'M. S. Huber', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Attn: Mr. Marty Huber

Dear Mr. Huber:

Please send historical information on Colt New Line model, caliber .32, serial # 13911. This particular piece is Engraved, nickel plated, has pearl grips and is cased in a leatherette covered case which has Colt New .32 inside the ~~case~~ lid. On the outside of the case is a monogram with the letters P and T and another initial that I cannot make out and the date 1882, all in gold letters.

Enclosed is my check for $15.00. I hope that you can find the historical information on this and perhaps to whom it was sent and monogrammed for. If you can please, please send me a Xerox copy of that shipping ledger sheet. The 1882 date should make your job a little easier on this one. Thank you for your past courtesies.

Very truly yours,

Robert G. Cox, M. D., F. A.
