Dear Mr. Shepherd:

This letter is in reference to your request for historical information on your Colt Single Action Army Revolver, serial number SA95172.

Please be advised that we are unable to provide you with all of our usual information on this particular revolver. We have, however, found information in our records that confirms this revolver was part of the Colt U.S. Model Limited Edition which was produced by the Colt Custom Shop in the early 1990's. The edition consisted of 270 Single Action Army revolvers that were manufactured in .45 ACP caliber. There were 110 revolvers produced with 4 3/4" barrels, 110 made with 5 1/2" barrels and 50 furnished with 7 1/2" barrels. Our records indicate your revolver was furnished with a 5 1/2" barrel. All of the revolvers were finished in Royal Blue and fitted with walnut stocks without medallions. In addition, all of the guns in this edition were engraved with Class "A" American style scroll engraving done by Old Dominion Engravers of Lynchburg, Virginia.

We trust the information we have been able to provide on this revolver will be of interest to you.

Sincerely,

Beverly Jean Haynes
