Dear Mr. Donaldson,

I recieved your letter when we returned from Wyoming on a ski trip and am now answering it almost a month later. Yes, that was my ad in the Shotgun News, and yes, too, I also have the military records. My grandmother left her geneology works to me when she passed away, so I am very familiar with my dear ancestor...who was always my childhood hero due to the folklore of my home. Tennesseans are traditionally full of family pride, so the ancestral stories were handed down from one generation to the next.

My husband was so kind to offer to buy the gun. He knows how much I admired the man and loves to surprise me. And I was terribly disappointed and do hope that you will let me know if you decide to sell it. Since you mentioned the insurance figure of $400. I shall venture to say that I would be happy to pay you $450.00 cash for it.

In fact, we will be in Florida on March 27th should you want to contact me. We will be at my brother's home (Patrick Slatery) in West Palm Beach (833-3894).

Sincerely,
Martha Slatery Erickson
(Mrs. Eugene W.)
